

June 1, 2013

Party highlights, Hamptons summer preview and more (Photos)

- Playing a villain in "The Amazing Spider-Man 2" can be exhausting, but actor Jamie Foxx wasn't too tired to hit the town on Thursday night! The actor's first stop was Katsuya in Hollywood where he arrived at the restaurant with a small group of close family friends and chose to sit in a semi-private room attached to the Dragon Room as they were there to celebrate one of his dinner guest's recent kindergarten graduation. Foxx kept the dinner at Katsuya PG as the group did not include any alcoholic beverages throughout the meal but made sure there was plenty of rounds of signature dishes for the table to share family style. After dinner, he headed to sbe's Blok nightclub, where he remained relatively low key, continuing to sip on water and chatting with friends about family and work. But the night didn't stop there! The group then made one last stop to The Sayers Club for some live music, but Foxx appeared to really be enjoying the old school hip-hop tracks the DJ was spinning before the band took to the stage. On his way out, the humble star happily posed for pictures with fans before calling it a night.

Link: <http://www.examiner.com/article/party-highlights-hamptons-summer-preview-and-more?cid=rss>